7. Regarding GST Payments

In light of the recent order of the Hon'ble Kerala High Court pertaining to GST, IMA Headquarters had sought a detailed report from the Chartered Accountants, which was duly presented in the meeting. The matter was further deliberated upon with the KPPS Auditor, Shri Basavaraj, who was present in person at the Managing Committee meeting.

After comprehensive discussion, it was unanimously resolved to continue the collection of GST as per the existing practice, and to await clear guidelines and final directions from the Hon'ble Supreme Court. This decision has been taken to safeguard against the possibility of retrospective collection and to avoid the imposition of exorbitant penalties in the future.

8. At present IMA KPPS have TWO accounts in the SBI.
Whereas, for the purpose of simplifying the calculation and compliance of GST, it was proposed to maintain a distinct set of accounts under KPPS; Now, therefore, after due deliberation, it is hereby resolved that separate accounts shall be maintained under the following heads for KPPS. These separate accounts shall be systematically maintained to ensure accuracy, transparency, and ease of reconciliation in all GST-related matters.

1) Main Account
2) Premium Account
3) Admission Account
8. Any other subject with the permission of the Chair. Nil
9. Vote of thanks. Was rendered by Dr.Vijayasaradhi.A.
